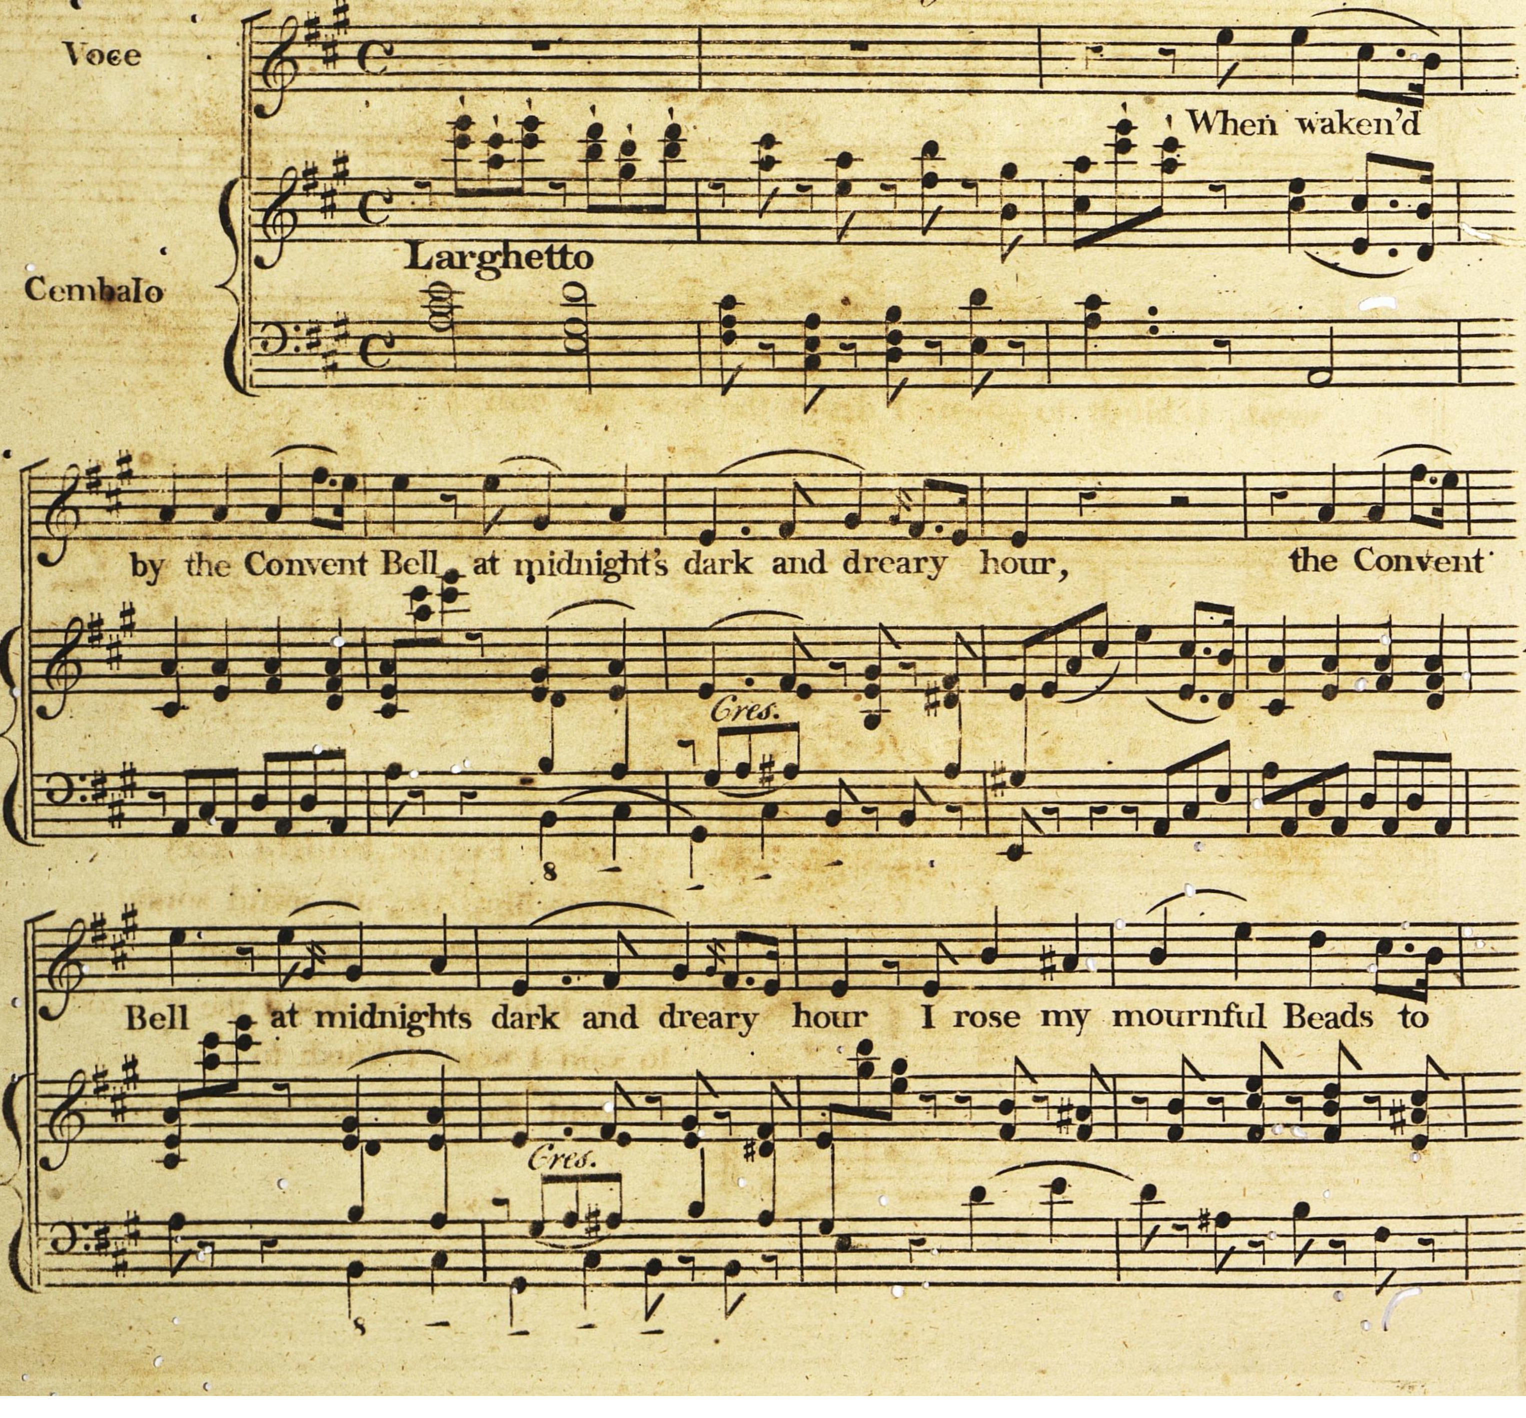
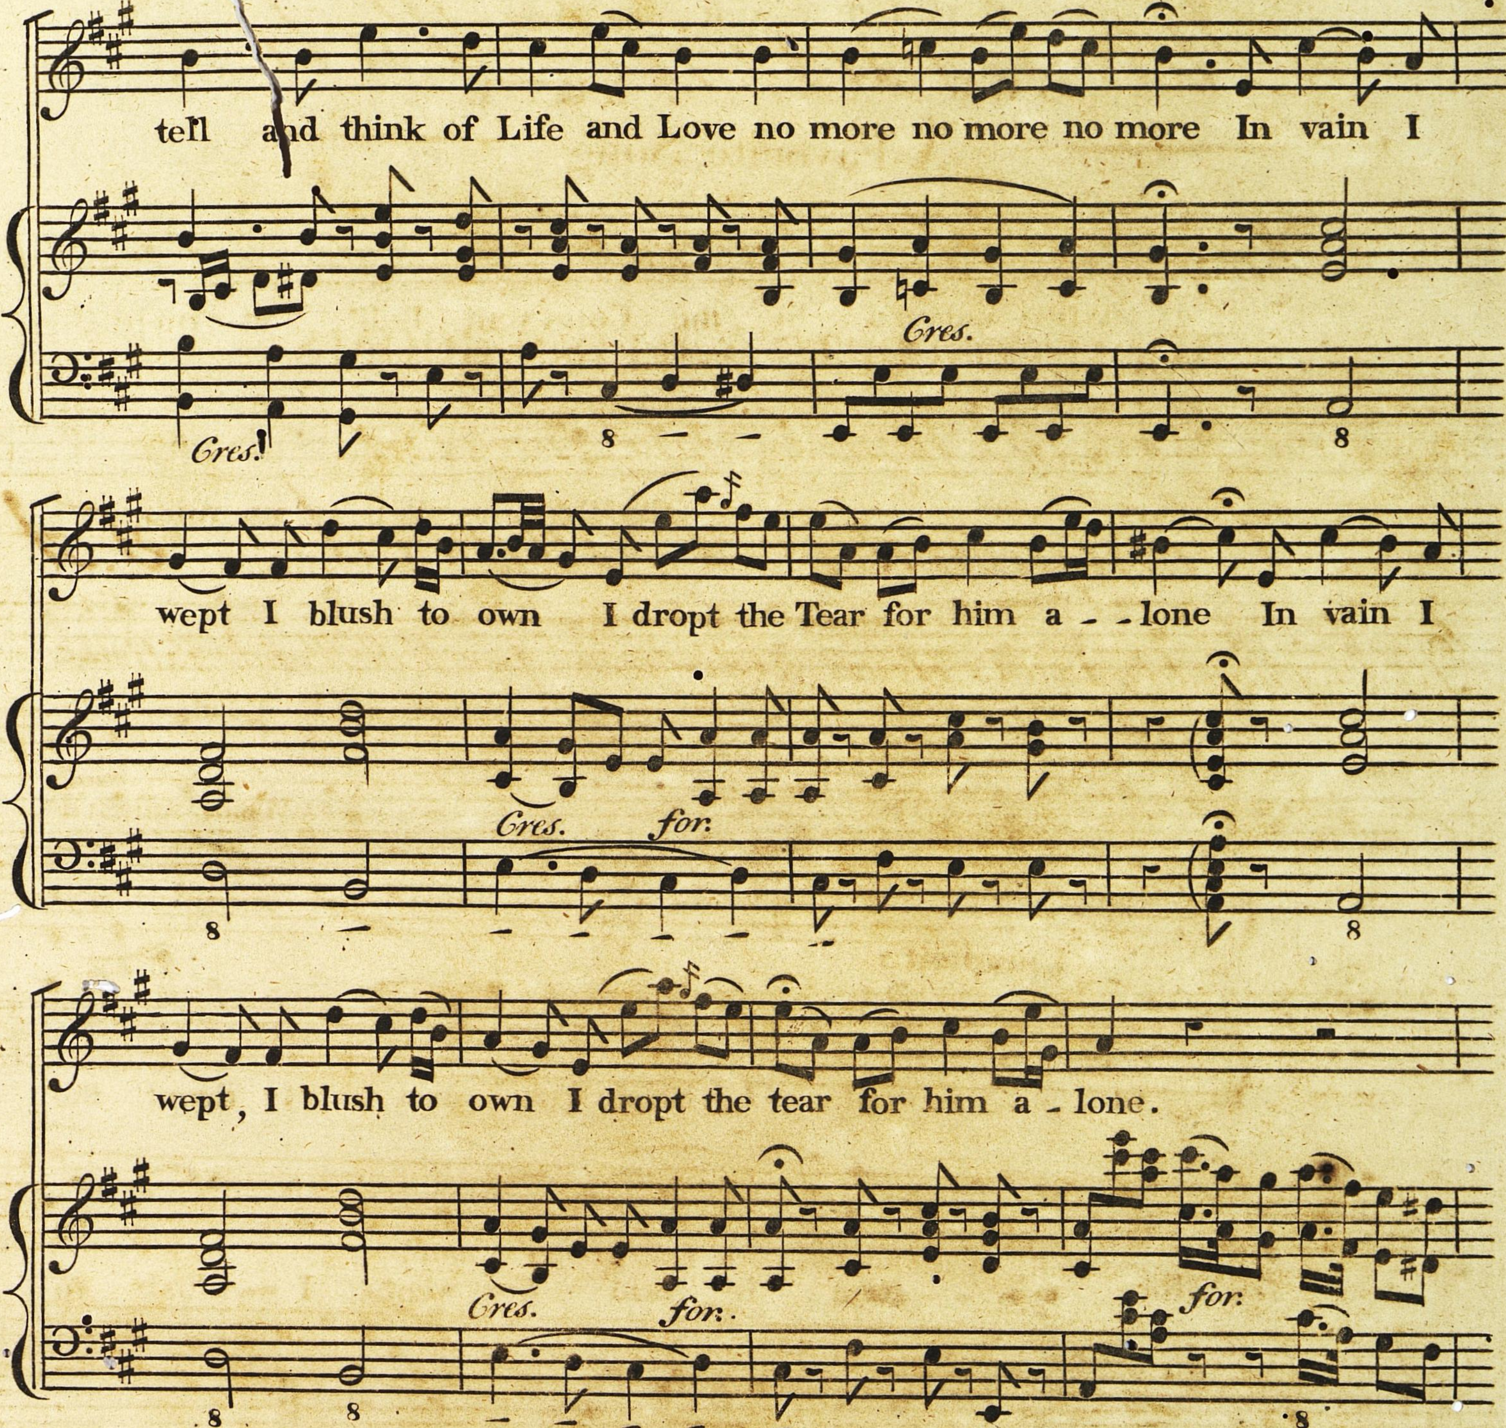
The Words by Saml. Birch Esqr.

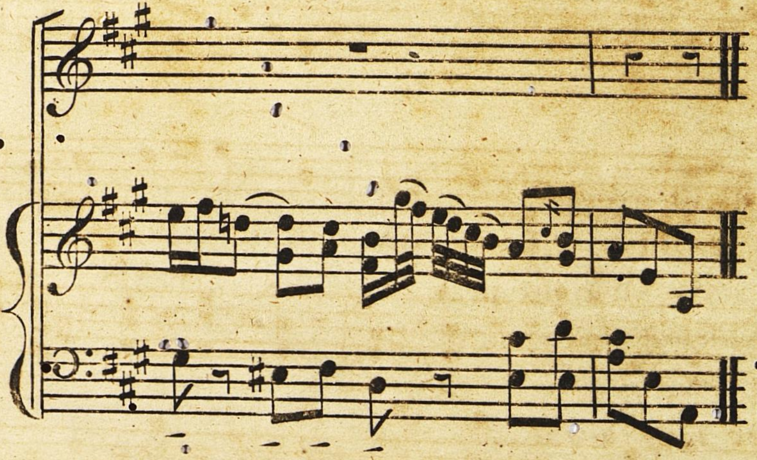
Composed by T. Attwood. T.A

Entered at Stationers Hall. Price 1s.

London, Printed by Lewis, Houston & Hyde, (Successors to Mr. Bland) 45, Holborn.

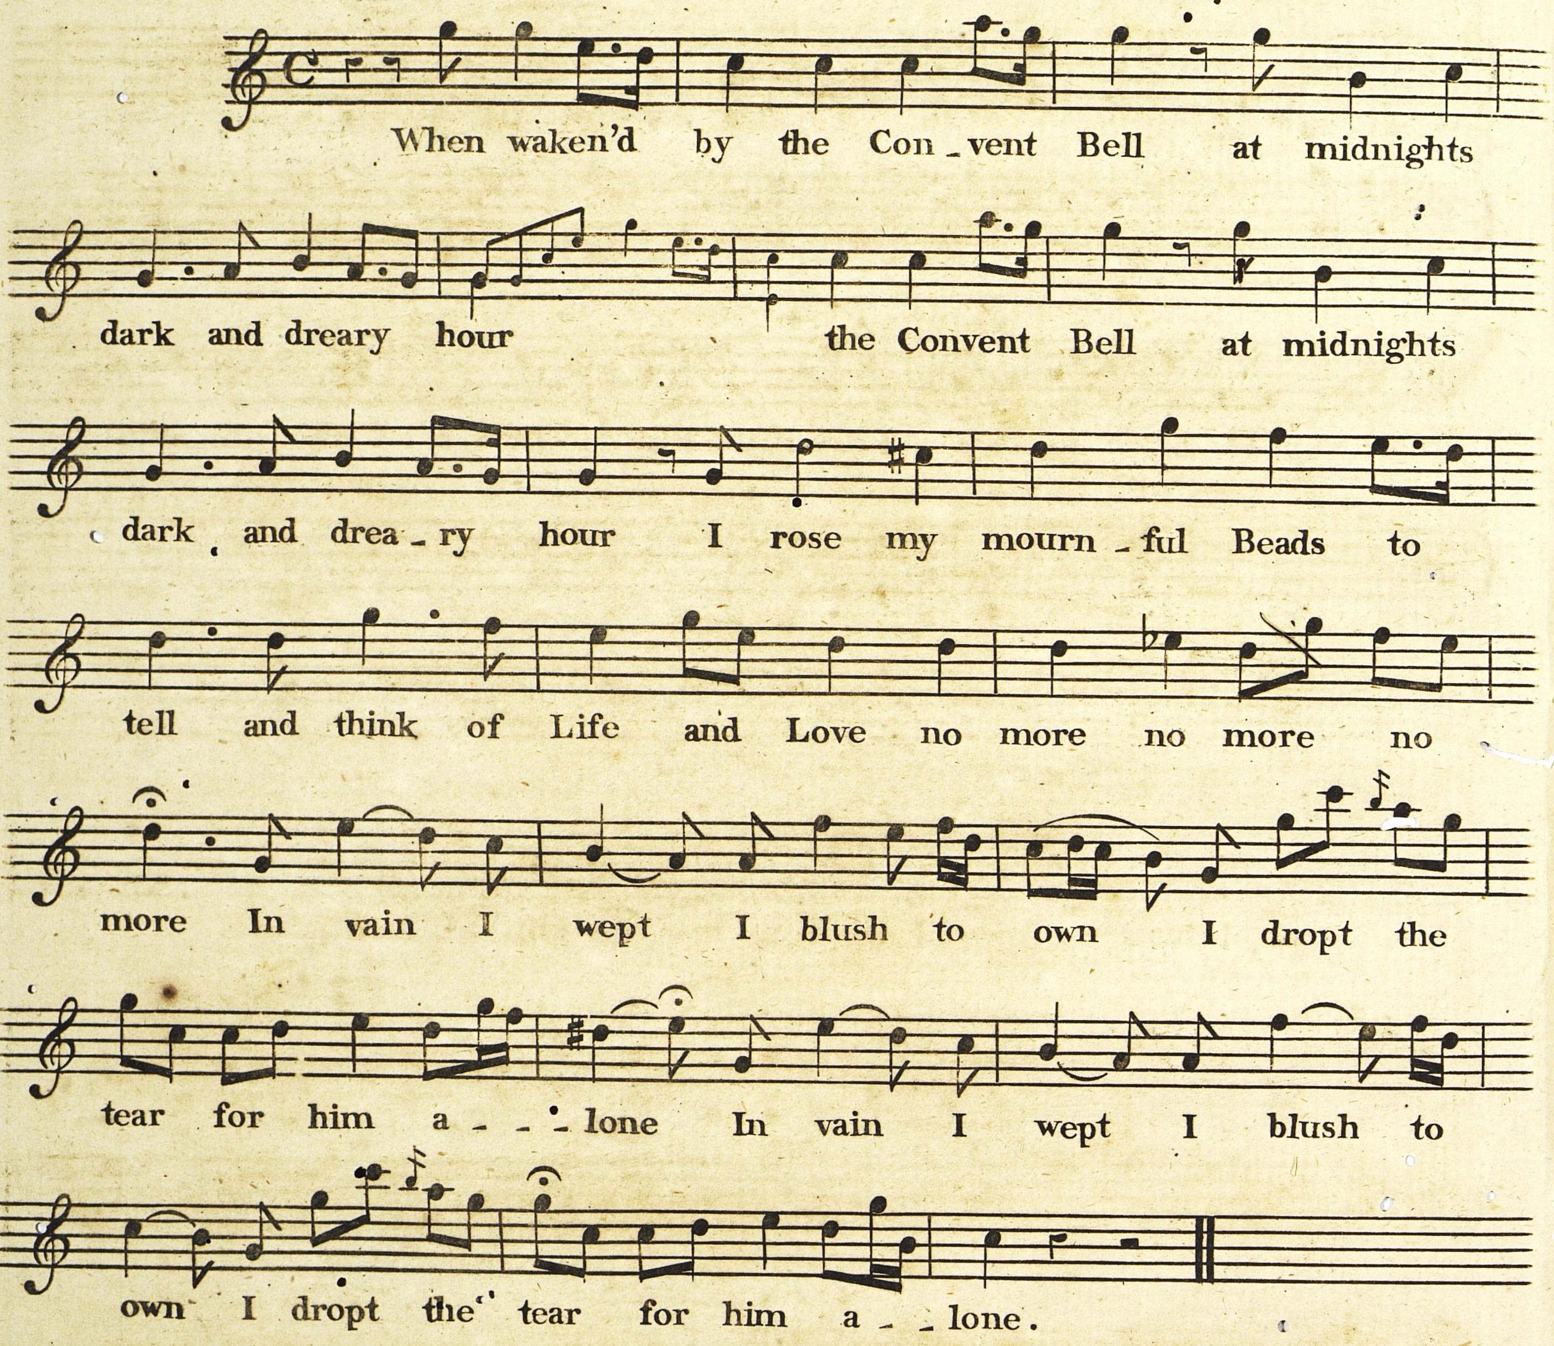






At sober Eve, or twilight grey
The swelling Organs awful sound
Would warn the Vestals when to pray
While holy Tears bedew'd the ground
In vain I wept I blush to own
I dropt the Tear for him alone.

GUITTAR or the
GERMAN FLUTE



At sober eve or twilight grey
The swelling Organs awful sound
Wou'd warn the Vestals when to pray
While holy tears bedew'd the ground
In vain I wept, I blush to own
I dropt the tear for him alone.
